AI-Powered Workflow Automation Platform

Statement of Work

This project aims to develop an AI-powered workflow automation platform that streamlines the candidate screening and evaluation process.

The platform will automate key aspects of the hiring process, including resume parsing, AI-powered gap analysis, screening question generation, interview transcript analysis, and structured candidate report creation.

Initially, the platform will be admin-controlled, with a roadmap for future SaaS deployment. Develop a web-based staffing platform with an intuitive dashboard. Automate candidate screening by leveraging AI models. Provide gap analysis between job descriptions and resumes. Generate custom screening questions based on detected gaps. Enable manual transcript uploads for post-interview analysis. Generate standardized candidate reports for clients. Ensure scalability for future SaaS deployment.

AI-Powered Workflow Automation Platform

At LogIQ Curve, we help organizations modernize hiring with an AI-powered workflow automation platform that removes manual work, speeds up decisions, and improves hiring accuracy.

Our system transforms traditional recruitment into a smart, data-driven process.

Key advantages:

- Automated resume screening and gap analysis
- AI-generated interview questions
- Structured candidate scoring and reports
- Transcript analysis with insight extraction
- Centralized dashboard for recruiters and admins

With LogIQ Curve, you reduce hiring time, improve candidate quality, and scale without increasing headcount—so you can hire smarter, faster, and with confidence.
